Writing 9.45 – 10.15	https://authorfy.com/masterclasses/awritelough/ Your writing challenge this week will be to write a story that you could use to enter the Write Laugh competition. Today, watch the videos and get some ideas.	Today you need to plan your story. Think about how your story will begin, how you will build up to the main event, what the main event will be, how your story will resolve and how to bring it to an end. Most importantly, how will you make it funny?	Time to begin writing your story. Aim to write the beginning and the build-up today. Introduce the main character, the setting for the story and begin to include some action. Make sure you use interesting adjectives to describe your character and setting.	Aim to finish your story off today – write the main event, the resolution and the ending. Try to include some adverbs to add detail to your writing and include some dialogue.	Time to edit your story. If you are pleased with it, you could enter it into the competition (you don't have to enter if you don't want to). You could type your story up or write it up in your neatest handwriting.
Spelling and grammar 10.15 – 10.30	Complete the BBC bitesize activities on using apostrophes in contractions: https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zvwxnb/articles/zcyv4qt	Practise five spellings from the list in your book.
