

Deepening Understanding
LKS2 Non-Fiction Text
Targeted Retrieval Questions

This set of questions is based upon the text 'The Water Cycle'.

Q1

Use the numbers 1-4 to order the different parts of the cycle as they appear in the first paragraph.

condensation

collection

precipitation

evaporation

1 Mark

Q2

What is the name for water in its gas form?

1 Mark

Q3

Where are two places condensation can be seen?

1) _____

2) _____

2 Marks

Q4

Where does most of the water from the cycle end up?

1 Mark

Q5

For each statement, tick the correct box to show whether it is true or false.

Statement	True	False
Water vapour in the sky is seen as clouds.
Precipitation is water falling back to earth.
The cycle stops after the final stage.

1 Mark

Q6

Draw lines to match the parts of the water cycle to the correct term.

precipitation

vapour rises into the sky and is seen as clouds

condensation

water vapour rising and becoming liquid again

evaporation

water falling back to Earth

collection

water flows back to rivers, seas, streams and oceans

1 Mark

Q7

Write down two things you are told about how important the water cycle is.

1) _____

2) _____

2 Marks

Q8

What is the water cycle also known as?

1 Mark

